A BOOT UP DORSET'S JURASSIC COAST

Rodney Legg

Fed up with being lectured by your walking guide books? Are you bored with being treated like a head-down hiker from the 1950s? Then Halsgrove's new 'Boot Up' series of walking guides is for you – simple, straightforward and modern and with all the important information: where to park, where to go, where to take the kids and where's the pub!

Rodney Legg provides all the answers in ten walks, packed with colour photographs, along Dorset's unique World-Heritage Jurassic Coast. In hardback, small enough to slip into the pocket, colourful enough to keep as a souvenir, the new Boot Up Guide will be the indispensable bench-mark for the twenty-first century.

Rodney Legg was born in Bournemouth and is one of Dorset's most prolific writers. He has produced hundreds of country walks and is the author of Halsgrove's Discover the Jurassic Coast.
