A BOOT UP NORTH DEVON

Rosanna Rothery

Imagine a walker's paradise - beautiful, tranquil, majestic yet also dramatic and wild, with a magnificent coastal path plus some of the best beaches in the country. Well that paradise is right here on our doorstep. With spectacular contrasts in scenery, North Devon offers incredible attractions for families and groups of friends looking for an active and interesting day out. Two outstanding Heritage Coasts, the stunning Tarka Trail and the UNESCO Biosphere Reserve at Braunton Burrows make it one of the most enticing landscapes in the UK to discover. In this book there are ten rambles to suit everyone whether you are looking for a longer walk or a relaxed stroll and the chance to find out more about the area's history, countryside, myths and mysteries. Whether it's marching in a maelstrom or sauntering in the sunshine, it's well worth taking a walk in Rosanna Rothery's boots.

A well-known Devon-based journalist, Rosanna Rothery's knowledge of its countryside, lore and history is second-to-none and her regular column in the North Devon Journal, Rosanna's Ramble, has an avid readership of both walking enthusiasts and readers simply seeking a titbit of local interest.
