

SPIRIT OF NORWICH CATHEDRAL

Daniel Tink & Stephen Browning

For over 900 years the magnificent Norman Cathedral has dominated the Norwich skyline. It has always been greatly loved by the people of Norfolk, and was recently voted Norfolk's favourite building. In this little book, the photographs of Daniel Tink are combined with Stephen Browning's text in a book that will provide the ideal souvenir for those visiting the Cathedral and the city. The photographs are taken to remind the reader both of the religious aspects of Cathedral life and the architectural magnificence of this stupendous building.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Daniel Tink was born and still lives in Norwich, a city he knows well and continues to enjoy exploring. A graphic designer by profession, photography has given him a unique and detailed view of life through a lens. Daniel has previously provided photographs for the book Norwich in the Halsgrove Discover Series written by Stephen Browning, and is author of the book Spirit of Norwich.

Stephen Browning is author of the book Norwich in the Halsgrove Discover Series and a forthcoming title When Schooldays Were Fun. He was educated in Norfolk before gaining an honours degree in History from the University of Kent at Canterbury. It was here that he organised his first book, 'Canterbury for the Disabled', with the help of about 30 other students. After training as a teacher at the University of Birmingham School of Education, he spent much of his working life promoting teacher exchanges between the United Kingdom and the overseas Commonwealth. He also worked for the Council for Education in the Commonwealth, a body that operates within the two chambers of the British government – the Lords and the Commons. He has written extensively about best practice in education both in the UK and the 50-plus countries of the Commonwealth. He has written, or contributed to, a number of books about the English Language, mainly for the Asian market. He spends several months each year in Taiwan.
