

A PUPPY THE SIZE OF A PONY

Grace Dorey

This book is a sequel to the popular Barking Mad in Barnstaple and William: Still Barking and completes the trilogy by Grace Dorey, which presents a humorous account of the early life of a wilful Golden Retriever puppy, named William. A Puppy the Size of a Pony continues to monitor this rogue Retriever, while he grapples with his determination to escape, hones his hunting skills by chasing foxes, pheasants and deer, and displays a passionate love affair with anything muddy. Despite all his numerous imperfections, and there are many, he forms a special bond with his owner, so that she finds it a privilege to love and own a zany, hair-brained comedian called 'William'.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR
